R&B superstar Joe returns with BRIDGES, an album that reflects on the complexities of relationships and personal growth. Inspired by the idea that “we build them, cross them, burn them... then realize how much we need them,” BRIDGES delivers a deeply personal and relatable listening experience that is both therapeutic and uplifting. The project features the standout single “Love & Sex Pt. 2” with Kelly Rowland, a smooth, nostalgic track that builds on the success of its predecessor featuring Fantasia. Other highlights include the heartfelt ballad “If You Lose Her,” which warns against taking love for granted, along with fan favorites like “First Lady,” “Take It to the House,” and “The Rope Gives Way.” Known for his signature blend of R&B and crossover appeal, Joe continues to showcase his versatility and timeless sound. A seven-time Grammy nominee, he rose to prominence with hits like “All the Things (Your Man Won’t Do),” “I Wanna Know,” and collaborations with Mariah Carey and Big Pun. With BRIDGES, Joe reaffirms his place as one of R&B’s enduring voices—delivering music that resonates across generations while staying true to the genre’s classic roots.
